FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Kim Swanson, an Eastern Illinois University student from Wheaton (Ill.), has been appointed to the office of Executive Vice President for the student body.

Duties of the executive vice president include serving as coordinator of all student-faculty boards, assisting in determining general policy of the student government's executive branch, and serving as administrative assistant as defined by the Illinois board of Governors.

Swanson, a speech communication major, is the first freshman to ever hold the position in the history of student government at Eastern.
